Cost: $2,500.

We will work together as a team to raise the money. This cost includes travel, room and board, and money for building materials. Do not let the cost be a deterrent. God always provides the means for those He calls.

My request:

Simply pray about this opportunity. This is a very exciting time for me as I am responsible to issue the invitation and God will work in the hearts of those that He desires to go. I would be very grateful if you would share this opportunity with others. Based on the incredible blessings enjoyed by many previous participants on similar trips, I know God will do a GREAT work in and through those He sends. Call me or email me at 404-805-6003 or mark.cambron@gmail.com to let me know what He says to you about this trip.
